

Primary Reading: Concepts of Print: Developmental Reading Skills and Foundations of Print

Sentence and Word Concepts

Students

Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 121-130:

- Distinguishes words from nonwords
- Matches words to a given set of words

Students:

RIT 131-140:

- Distinguishes words from nonwords
- Identifies the first letter in a word
- Identifies the first word in a sentence
- Identifies the last letter in a word
- Identifies the last word in a sentence
- Matches a word to a given word
- Matches words to a given set of words with different font

Students:

RIT 141-150:

- Distinguishes words from nonwords
- Identifies a sentence
- Identifies symbols as letters
- Identifies the first word in a sentence
- Identifies the last word in a sentence
- Identifies the number of letters in a word
- Identifies the number of words in a sentence
- Identifies where to start reading a sentence
- Matches words to a given set of words with different font
- Recognizes that words are made up of letters
- Understands that the first word in a sentence is capitalized

Students:

RIT 151-160:

- Distinguishes words from letters
- Distinguishes words from nonwords
- Identifies a sentence
- Identifies the first word in a sentence
- Identifies the number of words in a sentence
- Recognizes that words are made up of letters
- Understands that the first word in a sentence is capitalized

Students:

RIT 161-170:

- Distinguishes words from letters
- Distinguishes words from nonwords
- Identifies the number of words in a sentence
- Understands that spaces are between words in a sentence