

Language: Parts of Speech Adjectives and Adverbs

Adjectives

Students Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 151-160:

- Chooses an adjective to modify a noun

Students:

RIT 161-170:

- Chooses an adjective to modify a noun
- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Uses demonstrative adjectives

Students:

RIT 171-180:

- Chooses an adjective to modify a noun
- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Uses an adjective with an irregular comparative or superlative form
- Uses demonstrative adjectives

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Chooses an adjective to modify a noun
- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Forms comparative and superlative adjectives
- Identifies words that describe a noun
- Uses an adjective with an irregular comparative or superlative form

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Forms comparative and superlative adjectives
- Identifies adjectives
- Places adjectives in the correct order in a sentence
- Uses an adjective with an irregular comparative or superlative form

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Forms comparative and superlative adjectives
- Identifies adjectives
- Places adjectives in the correct order in a sentence
- Understands the meaning of comparative and superlative adjectives

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Chooses between adjectives and adverbs as modifiers
- Chooses between the positive, comparative, and superlative forms of an adjective
- Forms comparative and superlative adjectives
- Identifies adjectives
- Places adjectives in the correct order in a sentence
- Recognizes when a phrase functions as an adjective
- Understands the meaning of comparative and superlative adjectives

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Identifies adjectives
- Identifies the word modified by an adjective
- Recognizes participial phrases
- Recognizes when a phrase functions as an adjective
- Understands the meaning of comparative and superlative adjectives

Students:

RIT 231-240:

- Recognizes participial phrases