

Reading 2-5: Informational Concepts: Main Ideas, Details, and Inferences

Identify Main Idea or Details, Summarize, and Locate Information

Supporting Details

Students

Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Determines details that support a claim in informational text

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Determines details that support a claim in informational text
- Determines details that support a prediction or conclusion in informational text
- Identifies details that support a claim in advertising
- Identifies details that support main idea in informational text

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Analyzes the technique and details an author uses to develop an event, concept, or characterization in informational text
- Determines details that support a claim in informational text
- Determines details that support a prediction or conclusion in informational text
- Identifies details that support main idea in informational text

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Analyzes the technique and details an author uses to develop an event, concept, or characterization in informational text
- Determines details that support a claim in informational text
- Determines details that support a prediction or conclusion in informational text
- Identifies details that support main idea in informational text

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Analyzes the technique and details an author uses to develop an event, concept, or characterization in informational text
- Determines details that support a prediction or conclusion in informational text
- Determines details that support an inference in informational text
- Determines details that support an inference in literary nonfiction
- Identifies details that support main idea in informational text