

Reading: Informational Text: Craft and Structure

Author's Craft: Figurative Language

Students

Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 171-180:

- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Identifies simile
- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Determines the meaning of a figurative phrase in informational text
- Identifies simile
- Interprets metaphor in informational text
- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Determines the meaning of a figurative phrase in informational text
- Identifies alliteration
- Identifies simile
- Interprets metaphor in literary nonfiction
- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Analyzes the effect of figurative language in informational text
- Determines the meaning of a figurative phrase in informational text
- Identifies idiom
- Identifies metaphor
- Identifies simile
- Interprets irony in informational text
- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Analyzes the effect of figurative language in informational text
- Identifies allusion
- Identifies idiom
- Interprets allusion in informational text
- Interprets idiom in informational text
- Understands the meaning of common idioms

Students:

RIT 231-240:

- Analyzes connotative meanings of words in informational text
- Analyzes the effect of oxymoron
- Identifies idiom