

Reading: Informational Text: Key Ideas and Details

Facts and Opinions

Students

Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 171-180:

- Determines whether a statement is fact or opinion
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Determines whether a statement is fact or opinion
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in advertising
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Determines whether a statement is fact or opinion
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in advertising
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in argumentative text
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in charts
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Determines whether a statement is fact or opinion
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in advertising
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in argumentative text
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Determines whether a statement is fact or opinion
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in advertising
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in argumentative text
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Distinguishes fact from opinion in argumentative text
- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text

Students:

RIT 231-240:

- Distinguishes fact from opinion in informational text