

Reading: Literature: Key Ideas and Details

Setting

Students

Learning Continuum Statements:

Students:

RIT 171-180:

- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies setting

Students:

RIT 181-190:

- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies setting
- Recognizes description of setting

Students:

RIT 191-200:

- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies details that reveal aspects of setting
- Identifies setting
- Recognizes description of setting

Students:

RIT 201-210:

- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies details that reveal aspects of setting
- Identifies setting
- Recognizes description of setting

Students:

RIT 211-220:

- Analyzes how setting affects characters
- Analyzes how setting affects tone
- Analyzes how setting contributes to plot
- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies details that reveal aspects of setting
- Identifies setting
- Recognizes description of setting

Students:

RIT 221-230:

- Analyzes how setting affects characters
- Analyzes how setting affects tone
- Analyzes how setting contributes to plot
- Compares or contrasts setting across literary texts
- Draws conclusions about a setting based on a description
- Identifies setting

Students:

RIT 231-240:

- Analyzes how setting affects characters
- Analyzes how setting contributes to plot
- Analyzes how setting contributes to theme