

Pacific States	Capital City	Major Landforms	Industries
Washington	Olympia (Largest city: Seattle)	Mt. St. Helens (volcano), Mt. Rainier, Cascade Mountain Range, Columbia River	Aircraft manufacturing, software development, electronics, lumber
Oregon	Portland	Mt. Hood, Cascade and Klamath Mountain Ranges, Willamette Valley, Crater Lake	Wine, hazelnuts, grain, lumber, sportswear and athletic shoes
California	Sacramento (Other large cities: Los Angeles, San Francisco)	San Andreas Fault, Death Valley, Mt. Whitney (highest and lowest points in the continental U.S.)	Technology, tourism (warm beaches, amusement parks), entertainment industry
Alaska	Juneau (Largest city: Anchorage)	Prudhoe Bay, lots of rugged unpopulated mountains and tundra, Denali (Mt. McKinley), Aleutian Islands (volcanic chain)	Oil, fishing, tourism
Hawaii	Honolulu	Volcanic islands, active volcanoes on the Big Island (Hawaii)	Tourism (warm beaches year-round), pineapple, sugarcane, coffee, military